

Data Privacy Statement

Osprey Wilds respects the privacy of our donors and clients and will not sell, share, or trade their names or personal information with any other entity. This policy applies to all information received by Osprey Wilds, both online and offline, on any platform, as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications. When it is necessary for Osprey Wilds to work with a third-party service provider, donor and client information will be used only for the immediate purposes for which the provider has been engaged. Osprey Wilds may also require a confidentiality agreement be signed in those circumstances.

[Approved - February 26th, 2026]